

38' To celebrate the 75th anniversary of the founding of Smith college many special events have been planned for the rest of the academic year.

The Anniversary Vesper services will be held on November 13 at which time Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick will be guest speaker. From Feb. 14 through 16th, various features of college life will ~~xxx~~ be on exhibition. There will be an exhibit of dormitory rooms, with replicas of two student rooms from 1875 and 1949. The Classroom in action will feature various aspects of studies, including the School of Social Work. In addition there will be a pageant of gymnastic activities of the past seventy-five years, entitled An Historical Review of Physical Education.

From April 13 through 15th the Music Festival will take place and from May 8-12 the Anniversary play will be presented. This play based on the history of the college and produced by members of the theatre department will also be presented during Commencement week.

The Anniversary year will also bring to a close the drive for funds carried on by SCADS. The money will be used to increase faculty salaries, provide more student scholarships and build a new dormitory. ~~The Davis Student Center is the new heating plant was possible because~~ The money has also been used for the new heating plant and ~~at~~ for Davis Student Center.

#####

University of Chicago

To celebrate the 75th anniversary of the founding of the college many special events have been planned for the rest of the academic year.

The Anniversary Vesper services will be held on November 15 at which time Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick will be guest speaker. From Feb. 14 through 18th, various features of college life will have an exhibition. There will be an exhibit of dormitory rooms, with replicas of two student rooms from 1875 and 1949. The glass-room in action will feature various aspects of studies, including the school of Social Work. In addition there will be a presentation of gymnastic activities of the past seventy-five years, entitled An Historical Review of Physical Education.

From April 15 through 17th the Music Festival will take place and from May 8-12 the Anniversary play will be presented. This play based on the history of the college and produced by members of the theatre department will also be presented during Commencement week.

The Anniversary year will also bring to a close the drive for funds carried on by SEAB. The money will be used to increase faculty salaries, provide more student scholarships and build a new dormitory. ~~Specialized student facilities~~
~~new facilities~~ The money has also been used for the new heating plant and for new student center.

PS 2

Miss Louise Rood, violinist and violist of the Smith College Music Department, will appear in a concert in New York City, on Sunday evening, October 23. She will play a Mozart Violin Sonata in E major and the Mendelssohn Trio in D minor ~~with~~ will appear with her. Irene Jacobi, pianist and Otto Deri, cellist, ~~will~~ is to take place in Riverdale House.

Miss Rood will be heard at Smith in a recital with Doris Silbert, harpsichordist and Pianist, on Sunday, October 30. The program will be one of sonatas for viola and harpsichord.

#####

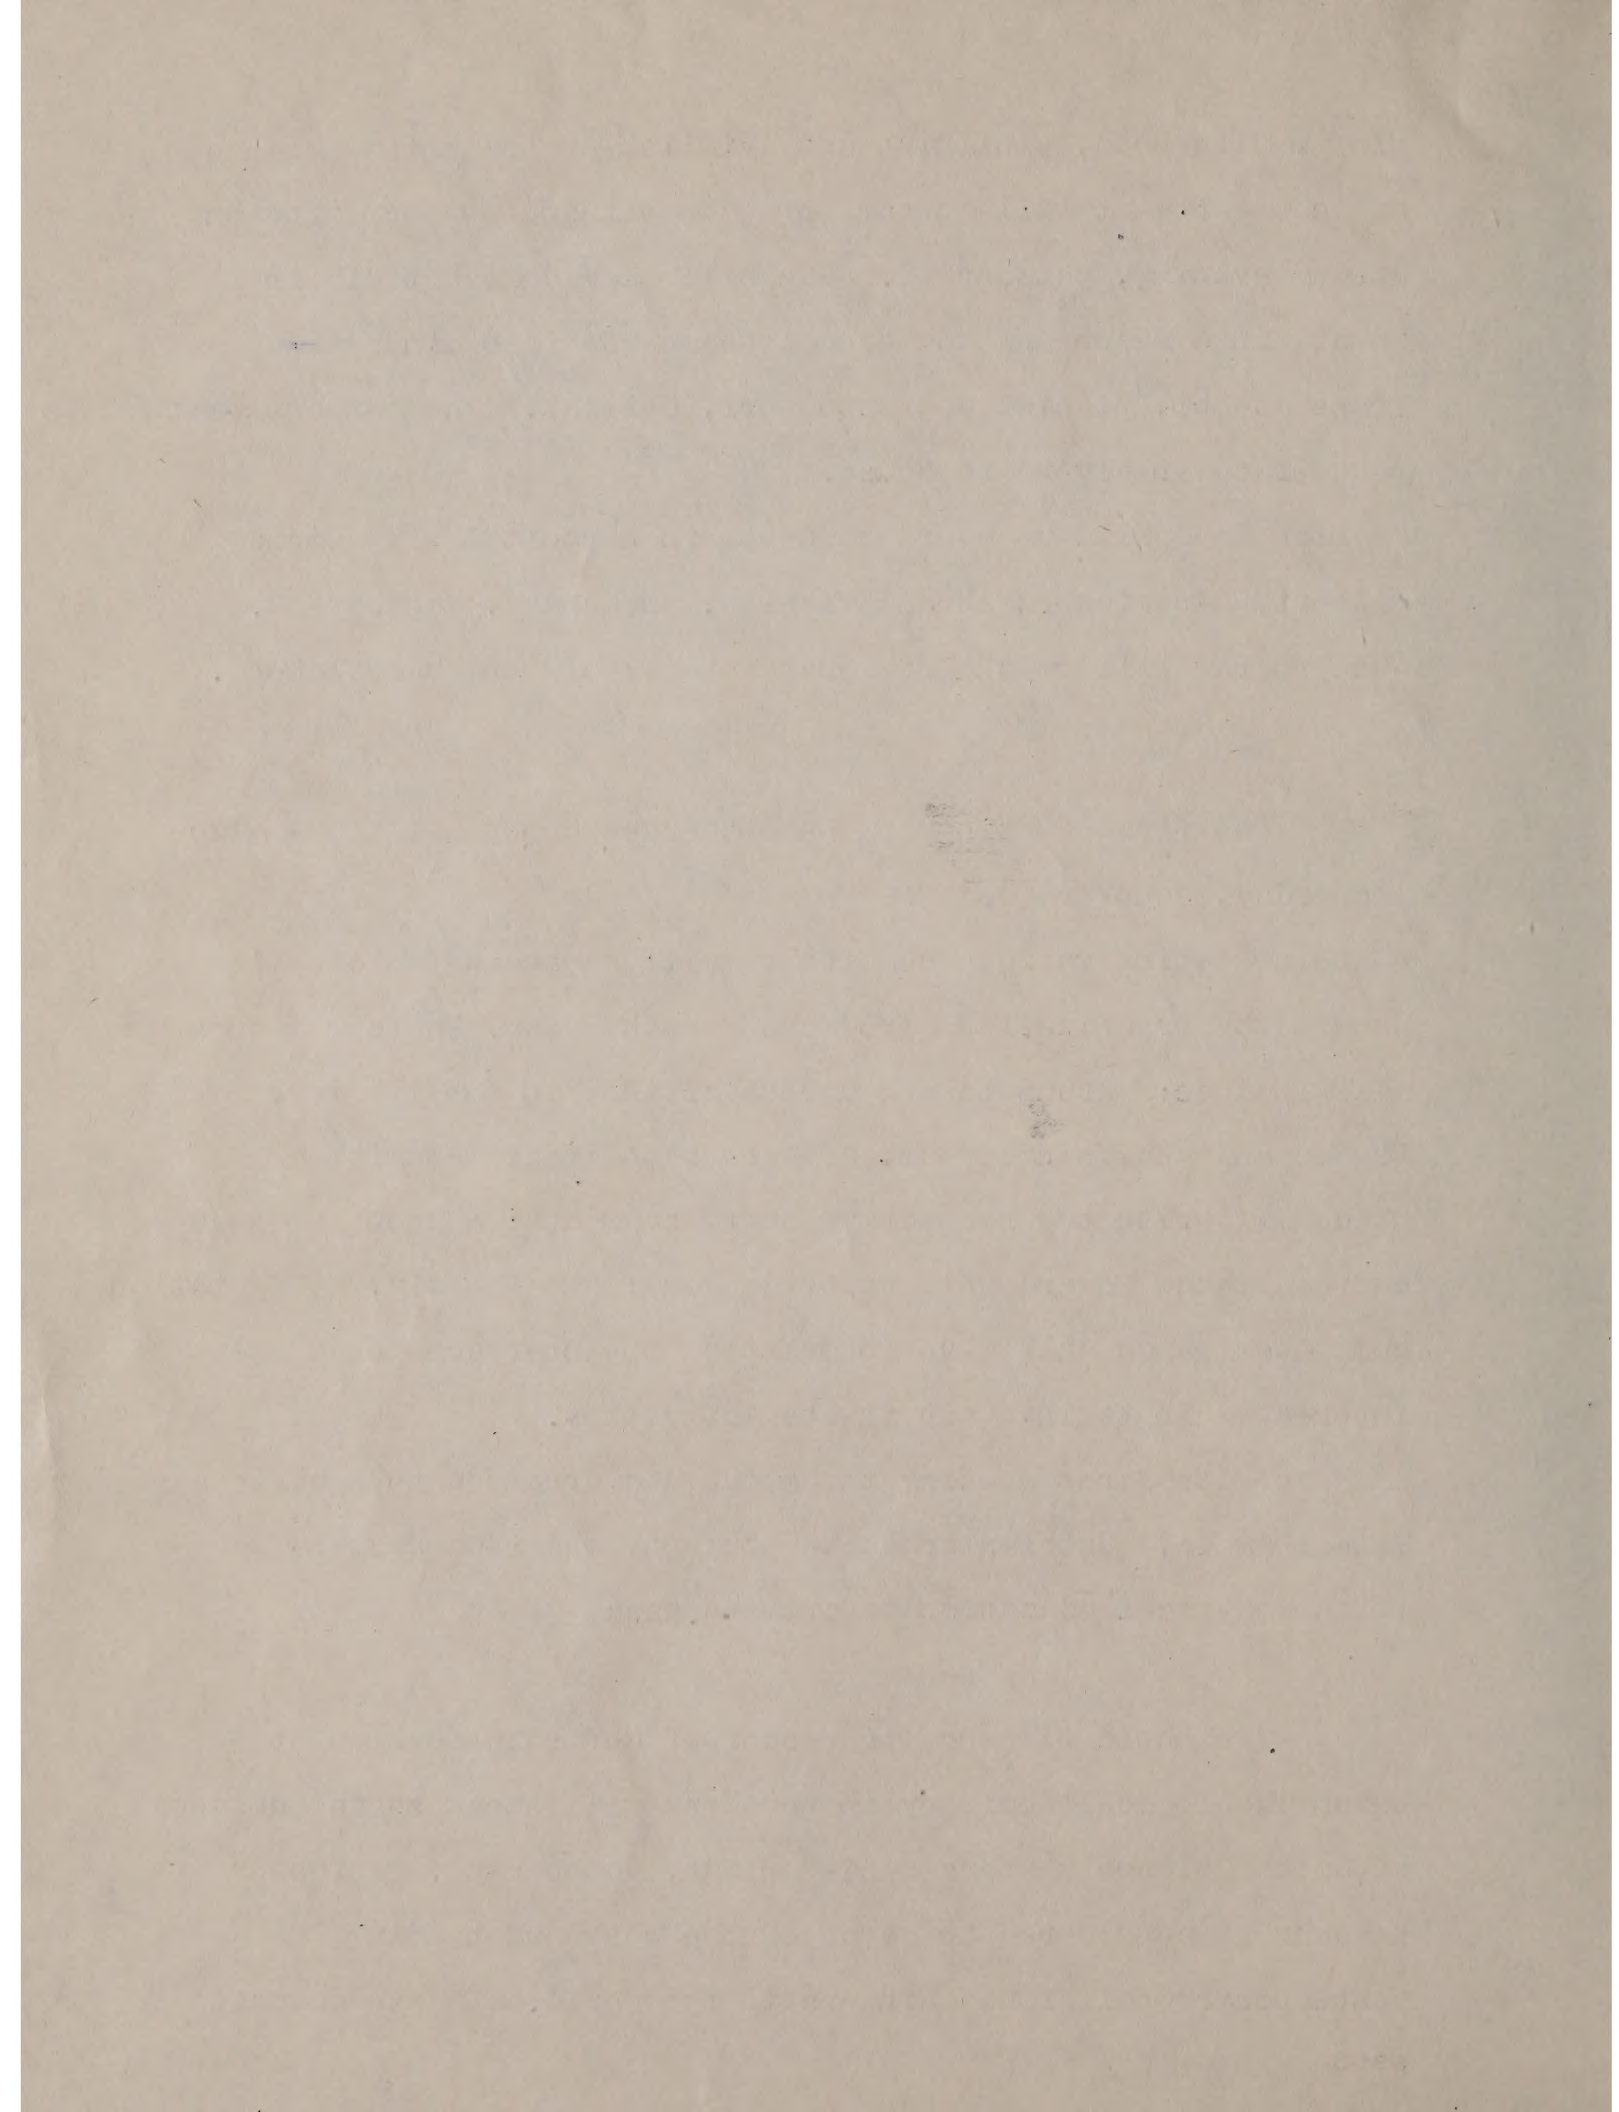

The first meeting of the Interracial Group will take place Wednesday, October 26.

At this meeting various committees will be ~~set up~~ formed which will handle the organizations projects for the year. The committees will include: a group to set up exhibitions in the library, ~~Studies~~ and Seelye noteroom; a Negro scholarship committee which will write to prospective negro students; a group to have charge of the Howard university weekend; and finally, a Deputation committee which will give information on Interracial to anyone interested in taking part in its activities.

For its first meeting the group has arranged to have as a speaker Friedl Smola, Austrian graduate student, who is assisting in the physical education department. ~~ssss~~

#####

Reinhold Niebuhr, professor of Christian ethics at Union Theological Seminary in New York will speak ~~ssssssssss~~ at Smith College vespers, Sunday night, October 23. Professor Niebuhr is considered to be one of the most outstanding contemporary religious thinkers in the world. He was educated ~~ssss~~ at Elmhurst college in Illinois and at Yale divinity school. He has received honorary degrees from almost every major college in the country in addition to one from Oxford University in England. Among his welknown works on religious thought are ~~hissssst~~ ~~ssssstssssssssssssssss~~ Faith and History, and ~~another recently published book--~~ ~~Disssssssss~~ Discerning the Signs of the Times.

983

Professor Niebuhr is known not only as a teacher, lecturer, and author but also as a leader in liberal political activities. He served as founded and member ~~x~~ on the national board of the ADA and is a contributing editor ~~xxxxxx~~ of the magazine, Nation.

####

The Political committee is the sponsor of a "welcome freshmen party," Wednesday, November 3, at 6 pm in the Field house. ~~The~~ Political committee is made up of Liberal Association, United World Federalists, and Student progressives. The purpose of the party on Wednesday is the get the Freshman class acquainted with the various activities of the groups. The hostesses at the meeting will be members of the Marxist discussion group and Political Committee.

#####

October 27 at 5pm the first in the series of lectures entitled Seventy-five Years of Development in Some Fields of Science will be given. The first speaker is to be Nora M. Mohler, professor of physics.

~~Although she intends to touch briefly on the changes brought about by applications of discoveries in physics in the past 75 years. However, her main concern will be with the changed points of view.~~

She will be speaking for an audience which though interested at Harvard College in Illinois and at Yale University.

has received honorary degrees from almost every major college in the country in addition to one from Oxford University in England.

Among his numerous works on religious thought are: Religion and the History of the World, Religion and the History of the World, Religion and the History of the World.

Religion and the History of the World, Religion and the History of the World, Religion and the History of the World.

Professor Niebuhr is known not only as a teacher, lecturer, and author but also as a leader in liberal political activities.

He served as founder and member of the National Board of the and as a contributor to the Journal of the American Academy.

The religious movement is the subject of a "Religious Freshman Year" program, November 2, 1944, in the Yale House. The religious movement is the subject of a "Religious Freshman

Year" program, November 2, 1944, in the Yale House. The religious movement is the subject of a "Religious Freshman

Year" program, November 2, 1944, in the Yale House. The religious movement is the subject of a "Religious Freshman Year" program.

October 17 at 8:00 in the evening of lectures on religious movement in the field of science

will be given. The first speaker is Dr. H. Mohr.

Professor of Physics.

At 8:00 in the evening of lectures on

religious movement in the field of science

will be given. The first speaker is Dr. H. Mohr.

Professor of Physics.

He will be speaking for an audience which shows interest.

284
in the subject is not necessarily informed in that field. She will introduce her discussion of physics with matters of common knowledge, and then develop it in easy stages with illustrative slides.

#####

The last in the series of concerts ~~commemorating the centenary~~ of Chopin's works will be given this Sunday, October 23 at 8:30 in Sage Hall. Ida Deck Haigh and Bianca del Vecchio, both of the department of music, will present two of Chopin's piano concertos.

The next music department concert after this will be on October 26 at 8 pm when Robert Stanley Swan will present the first in a series of historical organ recitals.

#####

The semi-annual Hillel dance will take place October 29 at 8 pm in the Crew House. Men from six colleges have been invited to attend. The group has invited men from Yale, Amherst, Harvard, the University of Massachusetts, Boston college and MIT. Music will be provided by records.

#####

~~Smith~~

"Call Northside 777, a film starring Jimmy Stewart will be shown Saturday evening, October 22 at 7:30 in Sage Hall. Admission will be 50 cents and the proceeds will go for CRC relief projects abroad.

The cast includes Lee J. Cobb who is currently ~~playing~~ playing in "Death of a Salesman" on Broadway and Richard Conte.

#####

The Vocational office has received the application forms for the Federal Civil Service examinations, which will be given in January. All seniors and graduate students are encouraged to apply. The forms must be returned to the office by November 4.

#####

in the subject is not necessarily informed in that field. She will introduce her discussion of physics with matters of common knowledge, and then develop it in easy stages with illustrative slides.

The last in the series of concerts administered by the of Chopin's works will be given this Sunday, October 23 at 8:30 in case Hall. The week design and place del Valle, both of the department of music, will present two of Chopin's piano concertos.
The next music department concert after this will be on October 26 at 8 pm when Robert Stanley Owen will present the first in a series of historical organ recitals.

The semi-annual Miller dance will take place October 23 at 8 pm in the Crew House. Men from six colleges have been invited to attend. The group has invited men from Yale, Amherst, Harvard, the University of Massachusetts, Boston College and MIT. Music will be provided by records.

"Call Northside 777", a film starring Jimmy Stewart will be shown Saturday evening, October 22 at 7:30 in case Hall.
Admission will be 50 cents and the proceeds will go for the relief projects abroad.
The cast includes Lee J. Cobb who is currently acting in "Death of a Salesman" on Broadway and Richard Conte.

The Vocational office has received the application forms for the Federal Civil Service examinations, which will be given in January. All seniors and graduate students are encouraged to apply. The forms must be returned to the office by November 4.
